Hadeeth of the Month:

➤ Abu Idrees al-Khawlani said: "I entered the Damascus Mosque and there was a man with a beautiful mouth and white teeth sitting with some people. When they disagreed about something, they referred to him. I enquired about him, and it was said, 'This is Mu'adh ibn Jabal.' The next day I went to the Dhuhr prayer, and I found that he had preceded me to the Dhuhr prayer, and I found him praying. Then I came to him from in front of him, greeted him and said: 'By Allaah, I love you for the sake of Allaah.' He said, 'By Allaah?' I said, 'By Allaah!' (This exchange was repeated twice). He (Mu'adh) then said (to me): 'Rejoice! For I heard the Messenger of Allaah ﷺ saying: Allah said: 'My love is bound for those who love each other for My Sake, those who sit with each other for My Sake, those who visit each other for My Sake, and those who give to each other generously for My Sake.'"
